

FOR WE SHALL SEE HIM

It is true that the God we serve cannot be seen with the natural eye. And for some this makes living the Christian life very difficult. We all know the old saying, “Out of sight, out of mind.” Or, “How can you believe in something that you cannot see?”

Ever since the fall of Adam and Eve, God has been invisible to human beings. Not because God is intrinsically incapable of being seen, but because of sin and man’s fallen state. It has been said that the problem is not with our eyes, but the problem is with our heart. God is holy, we are not.

But you say, “Didn’t Moses see God after the fall of Adam and Eve?” I think that if you examine the text closely in Exodus, you will note that Moses did not see God in His full glory, but only caught a glimpse of God’s back parts.

Jesus in His great Sermon on the Mount left us with this promise when He said, “Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God” (Matthew 5:8).

Scripture: King James Version: Exodus 33:12-23; I Timothy 6:15; I John 3:1-3.
