

SPIRIT-FILLED

When people are spirit-filled, they submit to one another. If I may for a moment capture your mind, you will know that what I am about to discuss is not a scheme designed to pull you into my way of thinking. But, a truth from Scripture that cannot be overlooked.

God's family is a designated unit for passing truth from one generation to the next. Satan, however, attacks whatever God has ordained to preserve this way of life. Satan uses this immoral, lust-filled society to attack one of the greatest institutions set up by God: the family.

As never before is the family under attack. On every side there is difficulty. And when this difficulty leaves the sides and works its way into the internal working, life seems almost unbearable.

When people are spirit-filled, they submit one to the other. In a family situation, this means wives submit to their husbands, and husbands submit to their wives by loving them with a nourishing, and cherishing love. Children submit to their parents, and parents submit to their children by not provoking them to wrath, but by nurturing them and bringing them up in the ways of God.

However, if anyone in the family is fighting for their rights, then any potential for a meaningful relationship is destroyed. Satan works hard to disrupt family union, because he knows, that from a spirit-filled life flows submission.
